THE SHADY FAMILY FROM 1804 to 1962

Just a few lines to explain about the following pages. Knowing only a few near relatives, I decided to locate some of the other members of the family, so began writing letters and visiting. I found that several others were interested and offered to help. I was given a copy of the original history that was written in 1913 then brought up to date in 1939.

This gave me something to follow and much information, so with the help of many others, this was made possible. It would not be possible to list the names of all that helped on this page, but I want to say a GREAT BIG THANK YOU TO EVERYONE.

One cousin has in his possession the ledger that William had in his shop in Ohio, and the sale record when he sold out to move to Indiana, and he was good enough to drive over 300 miles to loan them to me. As time goes by, these records will be very valuable, and I feel very proud to have a part in putting them down on paper for the future generations to read, and hope someone will keep the history up to date every few years.

There will be several mistakes, but this is my first experience at anything like this, so please correct them and send me the correct listing.

Biography of William Shady, 1.

William was born in Pennsylvania, May 22, 1804, parents unknown. His earliest recollections were of being bound out to a farmer, with whom he lived until he reached the age of twentyone years. He then went to Fairfield Co. Ohio, where he learned the tailoring trade which he followed for several years. In the year 1827, he married Susan A. Grim, who was born in Fairfield Co. March 20, 1803. To them were born nine children, seven sons and two daughters; the six oldest being born in Ohio, and the three youngest, in Adams Co. Ind. In 1840, he left Ohio and bought two hundred and forty acres of heavily wooded land in Adams Co. Ind. Here he cleared the land and ditched the swamps; raised stock and farmed until the death of his wife on March 2, 1876. He then rented the farm to his son, Martin, with whom he made his home until his death Sept. 19, 1879, at the age of seventy five years.

William was either of German descent or learned the German language from the farmer with whom he lived, as he could speak it fluently. He was of a humorous and jovial disposition, industrious and frugal; which qualities he seems to have bequeathed to his descendants. For while none of them have ever become wealthy or famous, they have all, with few exceptions, always been industrious, thrifty and dependable; able to make their own way in life and proud of the fact.

So to Grandfather William and his good wife, Susan, the Shadys owe a debt of gratitude for an heritage of decency, thrift, honesty courage and the many qualities that make for good character. And in no way, can they show their gratitude better than by carrying on in the same spirit their Grandfather started them, striving to lift their traditions a little higher with each generation.

The preceding was copied from the original family history that was written by Flossy Shady Mrs. Ira Summers Number 4--1; first in 1913, then revised in 1939. In 1957, Nettie Dean Shady, Mrs. Dean Nite, No. 4--76, copied it and added several names. In 1962, Glenn Shady, No. 4--55, copied it and added several more names and information. There are many families that should be listed, but the information has not been received. Please keep sending in any new names and information so it can be printed up and sent out to be added to this. A margin is left so this can be put in a folder or notebook for safe keeping.

Poem

There's a spot in Adams County,
where the Shadys used to dwell;
On its scenes our memories linger,
of its joys we love to tell.

'Twas a wild and lonely country to which our good fore-fathers came;
Swamps and forests all around them,
and the woods were full of game.

But the courage of our fathers
Coupled with their strength and grit,
Sawed and hewed and ditched
Until a garden spot they made of it.

Here to manhood grew the Shadys;
Uncle Joe and Uncle Lew,
Uncles Sam and Ike and William,
Uncles Mart and Reuben too.

And two daughters were included
In their healthy, happy home;
Elizabeth and Margaret who went to bless homes of their own.

Others came and settled near them;
and all worked from morn till night;
Not an hour was found for idling,
Yet their lives were free and bright.

Naught knew they of new improvements;
Nor of modern methods then;
But with shovel, hoe and sickle
And with scythes, they cut the grain.

While the men were busy farming,
Busy were the women too;
Spinning flax for homespun garments
For themselves and families true.

Now their home was humble.
Just a cabin made of logs;
And their garments plain and simple,
naught knew they of modern togs.

But they were supremely happy
And were independent too;
Loving God and trusting in Him,
To each other always true.

After summer's work was over,
All the grains were gathered in;
With their meat and flour
And apples and potatoes in the bin.

There before the old log firenlace,
On the winter's evenings cold;
Cracking nuts and telling stories,
Gathered neighbors young and old.

Well, among the nearer neighbors,
Was a family, Mills, by name;
Having many sons and daughters,
Fair and thrifty were the same.

In the course of time it happened,
Something strange came over Joe;
And very soon it then was noticed,
To the Mills home he would go.

Elizabeth, so sweet and comely,
Soon he won as his own bride;
And through sunshine and through sorrow
They walked together side by side.

Lew and Samuel, strong and robust,
felt to them 'twould be great gain,
If for pardners on life's journey,
Walked fair Rachel and sweet Jane.

Bill and Ike and Mart soon married,
Children came to bless their homes;
Reuben chose to wander from them
In this cold wide world to roam.

All were happy; all seemed peaceful
And no thought of cloud or strife
Came to mar the quiet Shadys,
On their forward march in life.

Hark! What means that awful summons?
Why those groans and cries and tears;
War is waging! Calls are coming!
"Who will go as volunteers?"

Three brave men among the Shadys,
Joseph, Samuel and Lew
Heard the call; marched forth to battle
For their flag and country too.

Hard it was to leave the loved ones,
Hard for wives so brave and true;
God alone could give them comfort
And sustain and see them through.

Three years passed, the war was over;
Victory for the Boys in Blue.
Back to homes and loved ones waiting,
Back to wives so loyal, true.

But not all the men of courage,
 Were those valient men in blue,
 Among the younger generation,
 Were two very brave men too.

'Twas not cannon, shot nor rebels,
 They were called to face and fight;
 But an elephant with trunk drawn,
 John and Mart met with one night.

Time has passed, the children scattered;
 Some are North and some are West,
 But to all, old Adams County,
 Of all counties, is the best.

Over in the Shady Graveyard,
 Our elders sleep beneath the sod;
 Having passed away before us,
 At the summons of their God.

Many Kin they leave behind them,
 and a heritage bright and true;
 One of bravery, thrift and loyalty,
 Love of life and goodness too.

All these good things they have left us,
 Who must follow where they trod;
 So let's carry on with honor,
 Belief in self and trust in God.

Make their meek but true example
 One that ever grows more bright,
 And bequeath a prideful birthright,
 To those who follow in our light.

Sometime in that great reunion,
 Knowing them as we are known;
 Shadys will be reunited,
 in that blessed eternal Home.

Composed by Pearl Dewey, Mrs. Martin Monroe
 Shady No. 3--14, just after she married him about 1911. It was read at one of the Shady reunions. Mrs. Summers added a few verses to the original.

The Shady Graveyard is on the Pleasant Valley Church Rd. about 2 miles East, 1 mile S. and $\frac{1}{2}$ mile E. of Tocsin, Ind. on part of William's farm. It is a mile South of Road No. 224, on road No. 500N, just East of County Line Rd.
 which is Number 800.

William had an auction on Feb. 8, 1840 when he left his shop in Lancaster, Ohio. The original copy of the sale was loaned to me for copying, but some names and amounts were not very clear. Some articles and prices are listed and notice the small amounts that were paid with a note. The spelling is as it was on the original.

In his ledger, he listed the prices that he charged for his work; $2.50 to make a suit coat, and 75¢ each to make a vest or pair of pants. He had the name of Jacob C. Moyer listed several times, and it is thought that that might have been the farmer that raised him, but no proof.

Civil War

The following was copied from a report that was written by Robert Blackburn, who was also in the 89th. Reg. of Indiana Volunteers in the Union Army. He had several battles and towns listed, but just a few will be mentioned.

Samuel and Joseph Shady enlisted Aug. 15, 1862, in the 89th. Reg. They had a few successful battles, but at Munfordsville, Ky. they were outnumbered 6,000 men to their 4,000 so surrendered; and were paroled and sent home. After 27 days, they reported to Indianapolis and went back in action. They went down to Memphis and used Ft. Pickering for their headquarters, making several marches and fighting many successful battles. They traveled by boat part of the time, and on March 12, 1863, they went up Red R. and took Ft. Scully, then on 14th. captured Ft. Russy, where Joseph was wounded. He was sent in and didn't join the regiment until Aug. 1864. The Reg. went up Red R. and fought battle of Pleasant Hills, then returned down the river, and the next battle was on Gov. Murray's plantation in La. on May 8. Then they went by boat to Memphis and made a few raids, up river to Cairo, Ill. then to Jefferson Barracks, Mo. They went by rail on Iron Mt. line to De Sota. They crossed Miss. Ark. Mo. and into Kansas, then back to St. Louis, Mo. Next, down the Miss. R. ; up the Ohio to Nashville, Tenn. then followed the enemy a few days to Pulaski. After they went by boat through the South West Pass, they moved up behind Mobile, and had a few battles, then to Montgomery, Ala. then down to Mobile where they were mustered out July 19, 1865. The final honorable discharge was received Aug. 8, 1865.

They were known as Gen. A.J. Smith's Gorillas, 18,000 strong and never whipped. Samuel made every march and battle, and Joseph made all, except while wounded. They marched 2363 miles on foot, and traveled about 11,000 miles by boat and rail.

The following is from other sources;

Lewis Shady enlisted in the Indiana Volunteers, and served as a private under Capt. Peter Studebaker. He was wounded at Chickamuga, and recuperated in Cumberland Hospital at Nashville, Tenn. He then was detailed as a nurse until the end of the war.

Some one has asked if the Mills girls that these men married were sisters, and this might be a good place to say yes, and their parents were Joseph and Margaret Mills.

The Shady Family

The first number in front of each name is their generation; and the second number will be the order in the family line, for identification. After the 4th. generation there are some names that are not listed so some numbers will be skipped, so they can be listed later.

Since William was the first Shady, he will be 1--1. It has been said that he had a stepdaughter by the name of Sally, that married a Joseph Steel and raised six children, but there is no record of them.

2--9 Reuben Shady, B. about 1844; left home as a young man and didn't return nor contact the rest of the family. We thought we had located some of his family, but they turned out to be descendants of an older Reuben. There are several people with our name and letters have been sent to many of them, but they didn't answer so we do not know where they fit into the family.

We did not try to list the occupations of members of the Shady family, as we didn't know many of them, and we didn't want to slight anyone. The older ones were farmers and lumbermen for the most part, also some barbers, photographers, ministers, teachers, office workers, shop hands, and probably some one in any kind of work you could mention.

As you know, William owned 240 acres of land in Adams Co. Ind. and several of his sons owned land that joined his farm, part of it just across the County line in Wells Co. Many of them cleared the land and built their homes where they raised their families. As far as is known at this time, there are only a few still living in their original homes.

William Jacob Shady lives on Co. road No. 400 and East of State road No 301.

Mrs. James Theodore Shady still lives in the house they built on Road No 224 near Tocsin.

We might mention that in every generation of the family, there have been several young men that served our country willingly in some branch of the armed forces, and some have lost their lives while doing it. We should be very proud of them.

The following information on the Reuben Shady family is not complete, but we will list what we have and hope to correct and add to it later. We have several names and addresses to contact but have neglected writing. We asked the U.S. census bureau and National archives office to help compare names and birthdates to see if there was a record of Reuben being a brother of William, and if they had the names of their parents. They sent a list of several people that would search the records for a fee, so we dropped it there. Reuben and his wife were born in Penn. Since this Reuben was born 1800, it looks like he could be a brother to our William, and not the son.

For the record, each name will be given a number, but it might have to be changed later after more information is furnished.

Corrections and additions to the Shady history

Please add this information to your copy, by writing it in its proper place or on the opposite page.

On page 8, No. 5--9 should be spelled Marjorie.

Page 9; Under 5--26, add Mellanie Lynn Buckingham, B. 3--21, 1962.

Since No. 6--44 has been used, she will be No. 6--43 A.

There will probably be others like it so whoever brings the history up to date in a few years can try to correct the numbers.

I am sorry that these mistakes were made, and all of the information was not in the original copy. Even now, I am still waiting for answers to some of the questions and letters that I asked about last year. We never will get all of the names in but we will keep trying. So far, there is no further information on the Reuben family.

As people get married or die, or any new members are born, send the information to me as soon as possible so I can add it to my copy, and as we get enough, we will print it up. Some day, someone will rewrite the history and if we keep it up to date, it will be much easier. Thanks for all you have done.

The original record didn't have all listed, so we will need to add a number here and change the number of Robert Wolfcale from 5--384 to 5--385.

The following information was received after the printing was finished and the folders filled, so it will be put in loose. From now on, the names will be kept until there are enough for at least a full page, then printed up and mailed out. If everyone will send in information once a year, we will try to keep the record up to date.

- 6--401 Corrine Bernadette Shady, B. 4/23, 1962--

I have tried to include all of the names and addresses that I have but there are some that move and do not notify me, so some of them will probably not be correct. Also, I have some names but no street address so in case you ever locate them, you can put them in. In this list, there are several that have never answered any of my letters or requests, and I had a notion to not copy them, but finally decided to put them on and you can try your luck. Maybe some of them might be in the notion of coming to the next reunion. I tried not to duplicate any names, or put the names of the children, so as to make several names at the same address, but it is hard to keep them separated.

The following names are some that I copied from phone books, and I have written to most of them without getting any answers; maybe some of them are descendants of Reuben.

Dallphus contacted a Clifford Shady of Lockhaven, Pa. (23 E. Clinton St.)
He claims his parents came from Ireland.

Andrew Shady

Marshall talked to Albert R. Shady of 821 Templeton Dr. Nashville, Tenn. and his grandfather, James came from Ireland to N.Y.

George Shady
300 Spicer
Akron, Ohio

I have corresponded with several people out
West that trace their family back to a Reuben Shady, born 1800, so he might have been a brother to William. I am still writing to anyone that I think might help us, including the Library at Harrisburg, Pa, and Health Dept. S.D.

Edward Shady
705 Crosby
Akron, Ohio.

Thomas Shady
333 Beaumont
Akron, Ohio.

I'll send you any new names and addresses as I get them.

Harry L. Shady

Washington, D.C.

It has been a busy fall, and I have just about got caught up on my letter writing., such as;
report on reunion, then mailing out the list of additions, and now getting these copied. I started about 2 weeks ago and would just get a few done at a time. I hope there are not too many mistakes.
